Harding Junior: I enjoy the process and the journey on screen

The actor returns to television in the Netflix series 'La venganza de las Juanas' and in three more projects

Harding Junior: I enjoy the process and the journey on screen

DANIELA LOMAS OCT 24, 2021 10:37 PM

For Haitian actor Harding Junior, much of this year has been a before and after in his career, as he had major on-screen appearances and now, in the last quarter of 2021, he returns to television in the recently released Netflix series 'La venganza de las Juanas', which in just a few weeks after its release has remained in the Top 10 of the platform.

In the series that picks up after 24 years the original story of the Colombian soap opera 'Las Juanas', Harding plays Claudio, a man who supports his partner Daniel and with whom he maintains a solid relationship, however, stories unrelated to them will put that stability in doubt.

In an interview with El Siglo de Durango, Harding junior spoke about his participation in 'La venganza de las Juanas', a project that reaches every corner of Mexico and the world and which, to date, is one of the most important in his acting career.

"It's a very interesting project and I was surprised that it premiered so soon because it finished filming in March. What I like most is that it's a very exclusive project, there are all kinds of characters, stories that exist today. I think that the couple of Claudio and Daniel is a very unusual one because they are a couple that supports and loves each other unconditionally, that there is no envy or deception, because normally when there are stories of couples in a project, they are always waiting for something to happen but not here, their problems are external to their relationship, and that's what I enjoyed most about these characters, that despite everything that Daniel has lived through, a very strong story, I won't give you details because there are people who haven't seen it, but despite that, Claudio is always supporting him," said the model.

A CONSOLIDATED HISTORY

In 'La venganza de las Juanas', Harding shares the screen with actresses who already have a consolidated acting career, such as Zuriá Vega, Juanita Arias, Sofía Engberg, Oka Giner and Renata Notni, who give life to the Juanas, the central characters of this television drama that is created after discovering that they are daughters of the same name by having in common a birthmark in the shape of a fish.

"It was great working with them and I would have liked to have more interaction, but this series was recorded when it was most difficult to get a project off the ground, we are still in this mess (pandemic), and many rehearsals and readings were via Zoom, we only met at costume fittings or Covid tests," she recalled with a laugh.

"The short time we were together was quite fun, because you learn a lot with people like them, they know how everything is handled and

Biografía

Harding Junior es un actor haitiano, nacido en 1981, en Puerto Príncipe, Haití. Sus padres se mudaron a la Ciudad de México, cuando tenía cinco años, donde empezó a concentrarse y dedicarse a la actuación y el baile, desde los 9 años, edad en la que se presentó por primera vez en los escenarios teatrales de la ciudad. Aunque fue seleccionado para participar en la telenovela Carrusel, sus padres lo sacaron del proyecto porque su personaje era un niño discriminado por su color de piel, elemento que afectaba su vida personal. Harding encontró en el teatro también un refugio al racismo que era común en México y poco a poco se abrió camino, siendo llamado para trabajar en televisión poco después. En su trayectoria, Harding ha participado en diferentes proyectos televisivos, novelas y series, entre las que se incluyen Rafaela (2011), Sr. Ávila (2013-2016), Blue Demon ...

LATAM MEXICO

Harding Jr. an actor in constant updating

SergoCardelv 1 Year Ago 0 6 Mins

We had the opportunity to talk with the talented actor Harding Jr. who is promoting various projects that he has filmed lately and is amazed by the great response from the public. Harding is a very versatile actor and is constantly updating himself through different workshops that enrich him as an actor.

Hello Mexico Festival

The actor recently presented the film "Familia Nacional" directed by Marcelo Tobar at the HOLA Mexico Film Festival . He describes how incredible it was to receive the character of Horrace that Marcelo wrote specifically for him. He talks about a particularity of his character that is present even if people don't notice it. When building a character he seeks to project, to provoke both in front of the cameras and behind them. Harding was born in Haiti but grew up in Mexico all his life and was excited to see so much Latino community at the festival. He was shocked to see the large amount of Latino community that for a moment he thought was in Mexico until he arrived at his hotel and realized he was actually in the United States.

Harding Jr. is an actor who is constantly updating his skills and is very versatile. He has acted in works such as two adaptations of "Otello", "Salomé" and "Festen: The Celebration", where he shared the stage with great actors such as Diego Luna, José María Yazpik, Mónica Díonne, and Karina Gidi. He considers it very necessary to be constantly updating his skills and thanks the different actors who have nurtured his career.

"My studies have been more in workshops. I don't have a career in acting per se. I have taken several acting workshops in the United States and Mexico, a couple of diplomas as well. I always like to dig and learn a little bit of everything to end up creating my own technique as Russell Crowe would say."

-Harding Jr.

He also told us about his character in the film "Manglar: La llega al Bosque de Agua" where he played "Tale" directed by Tabasco native Juan Garrata. The characters that are the hardest for him to get out of are the historical ones, as is the case of the slave he played.

Additionally, in the series "The Mosquito Coast" he played "Philippe", a refugee who helps the main family of the series to hide. In a conversation with an actor friend, he discovered that many times human beings seek to belong, to be from somewhere, and his friend told him that he should embrace that outsider and build a story from that particularity that they have as humans and actors. It is a character that helped him because he can be from many places and is in a story in a town with certain people where he develops. He expects an appearance of his character for the next season.

He believes that television series have become very popular lately thanks to streaming platforms. He has been in series that have a hint of series but are actually soap operas. He sees that there is a lot of work and enjoys it a lot. Series have a faster pace than movies but he really enjoys that he can find tunes and varieties that change because he knows the rules that exist in movies and television.
