Driven by a deep curiosity about people and the human experience, I approach acting as both a craft and a way of navigating the world around me. I am drawn to stories that explore the complexity of human emotion, and I believe every character has a truth worth discovering and telling.

My love for Theatre taught me the importance of grounding myself in each role and building authentic connections with the characters I portray. I strive to be fully present in every moment, trusting my scene partners and embracing the collaborative nature of storytelling. I believe the strongest performances come from honesty, vulnerability, and a commitment to living truthfully within the circumstances of each given scene.

I pride myself on my strong work ethic, adaptability, and positive energy. I offer professionalism, creativity, and a genuine love of collaboration to every production I am a part of. I take direction with ease, love taking on new challenges, and enjoy exploring the unique perspectives of each character I embody. Whether it is on stage or on screen, I am passionate about telling stories that resonate with audiences; to leave an impact and lasting memories.
